"DARING DANGERS"

Two-Reel Western Drama

JIM MERCEDES, convicted of the murder of the sheriff of Juana County, receives a letter from his wife, Mary. He reads between the lines and knows his wife is being annoyed by Joe Lacey, foreman of a neighboring ranch. He makes his getaway that night. Joe Lacey sees him and comes to arrest him, in order to get the $1,000 reward for his capture. Lacey and Mercedes fight and Lacey is killed. Mercedes and his wife hear the sheriff and his posse coming and they hide the body in a closet. Jim insists that his wife say she captured him, in order that she receive the reward. The sheriff is just about to take Jim when the baby opens the closet and the body of Lacey rolls out. The sheriff is going to take the two of them, when Mercedes holds them up and escapes. One of his posse fires after them and hits Mary, who dies. Jim wakes up. It was all a dream! Lacey was killed stealing cattle and he confessed to the murder of the sheriff of Juana County. Jim is pardoned and goes home to Mary.
